

United States District Court
District of South Dakota
Probation and Pretrial Services Office

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT 15-06

POSITION TITLE:	Treatment Specialist
POSITION TYPE:	Regular, Full-time (40 hours per week)
LOCATION:	Central South Dakota
SALARY RANGE:	CL 27 ($46,835 - $76,152)
STARTING SALARY	Dependent on Qualifications
OPENING DATE:	Friday, May 22, 2015
CLOSING DATE:	Close of Business Monday, June 22, 2015

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The selected candidate will provide direct treatment/training services to Native Americans under supervision in and near the Cheyenne River Indian reservation. The incumbent will conduct the assessment, selection, implementation, and evaluation of clinical treatment services to offenders in Indian country; provide clinical guidance in the development of local resources to increase offender pro-social behavioral change. The incumbent promotes community safety by enhancing and reinforcing the cognitive pro-social skills of persons under supervision in group and individual sessions. The selected candidate will teach persons under supervision to lawfully self-manage. The incumbent interacts with collateral individuals and agencies and prepares treatment/training plans and status reports. 50% or more of the incumbent times is devoted to direct service to those under supervision.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Required Education: A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university is required

Required Experience: The successful candidate must possess two years of specialized experience or completion of a master's degree in a field of study closely related to the position or a Juris Doctor (JD) degree.

Specialized experience is described as progressively responsible experience, gained after completion of a bachelor's degree, which provides evidence of the capacity to understand and apply the human behavior management skills involved in the position.

Candidate must have a driver's license and access to a vehicle for use when a government-issued vehicle is unavailable. Candidate must have sufficient keyboarding skills (or alternative skills) to be able to demonstrate proficiency in producing reports/documents/correspondence using electronic word processing and other office system technology.

MEDICAL REQUIREMENTS

Prior to appointment, the selectee considered for this position will undergo a medical examination and drug screening. Upon successful completion of the medical examination and drug screening, the selectee may then be appointed provisionally, pending a favorable suitability determination by the court. In addition, as conditions of employment, incumbent will be subject to ongoing random drug screening, updated background investigations every five years and, as deemed necessary by management for reasonable cause, may be subject to subsequent fitness-for-duty evaluations. The medical requirements and the essential job functions derived from the medical guidelines are available for public review at <http://www.uscourts.gov/>.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS

Must possess, with or without corrective lenses, good distance vision in at least one eye and the ability to read normal size print. Normal hearing ability, with or without a hearing aid, is also required. Any severe health problems, such as physical defects, disease, and deformities that constitute employment hazards to the applicant or others, may disqualify the applicant.

MAXIMUM ENTRY AGE

First time appointees to positions covered under law enforcement officer retirement provisions must not have reached their 37th birthday at the time of the appointment. Applicants 37 and older who have previous law enforcement experience under the Civil Service Retirement System or the Federal Employees' Retirement System and who have either a subsequent break in service or intervening service in a non-law enforcement officer position may have their previous law enforcement officer experience subtracted from their age to determine whether they meet the maximum age requirement.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Employees are required to adhere to a Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees which is available to applicants to review upon request.
- This position is subject to mandatory electronic funds transfer participation for payment of net pay (direct deposit).
- Applicant must be a U. S. Citizen or be eligible to work in the United States.

BENEFITS

Employees of the United States Courts are not classified under Civil Service but are entitled to similar benefits. These benefits include:

- Ten paid holidays per year.
- Paid annual leave in the amount of 13 days per year for the first three years; 20 days after three years, and 26 days after fifteen years.
- Paid sick leave in the amount of 13 days per year (unlimited accumulation).
- Optional participation in the Federal Employees Health, Dental, and Vision Benefit program.
- Optional participation in the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance program.
- Mandatory participation in the Federal Employees Retirement System and the Social Security retirement program.
- Optional participation in the Thrift Savings Plan (similar to a 401K plan with government matching, when eligible).
- Eligible for private long-term disability plan options.
- Eligible to enroll in a private long-term care insurance program.
- Eligible to participate in a flexible benefit program.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Persons interested in this position should submit:

- 1) The Application for Judicial Branch Federal Employment (AO-78), available at <http://www.uscourts.gov/> ,
- 2) Unofficial copy of college transcript, and
- 3) Explanation to the following demonstrating how they have acquired the Court Preferred Skills:

- Can demonstrate the values and skills to facilitate and enhance the offenders' abilities to sustain lawful self-management.
- Can demonstrate good writing and oral communication skills and the ability to work independently and professionally without daily supervision.
- Can demonstrate the ability to respond to the unique needs of each offender with sensitivity to the offender's culture, cognition, health, ecology, and personhood.
- Can demonstrate the ability to facilitate group and individual cognitive-behavioral treatment processes including pro-social skill building with directed practice targeting specific criminogenic needs.
- Can demonstrate an interest and ability to work effectively with Native Americans and with those living on tribal lands.

Please send the application material to:

Mesa_Scott@sdd.uscourts.gov

NOTE: Although personal résumés may be submitted with an application, the three (3) items listed above are essential before any candidate will be considered. If you have questions about the application procedures, please call Mesa Scott at 605.977.8959.

The hiring process is as follows:

- 1. All complete application packets will be reviewed.
- 2. Selected candidates in step 1 will be invited to participate in a phone interview.
- 3. Selected candidates from Step 2 will be invited to complete a written exercise.
- 4. Selected candidates from Step 3 will be invited to participate in a personal interview.
(Candidates participating in this step will be subject to a criminal record investigation.)
- 5. Selected candidate(s) from Step 4 may be invited for a second personal interview.

Each applicant will be required to underwrite his or her travel expenses to and from the interview site.

The Probation & Pretrial Services Office reserves the right to amend or withdraw any announcement without written notice to applicants. If a subsequent vacancy of the same position becomes available within a reasonable time of the original announcement, the Chief U.S. Probation/Pretrial Services Officer may elect to select a candidate from the original qualified applicant pool.

U. S. PROBATION AND PRETRIAL SERVICES, DISTRICT COURT OF SOUTH DAKOTA, IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER